Re: Telcordia Technologies, Inc. v. Cisco Systems, Inc.,
C.A. No. 04-876-GMS

Dear Judge Sleet:

Defendant Cisco Systems, Inc. has requested oral argument on its Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law, one of six pending post-trial motions in the above action. Although Telcordia of course would be pleased to present argument on any or all of the pending motions if Your Honor would find oral presentations helpful, Telcordia believes that all six motions have been very thoroughly briefed, does not see the need to ask for more of the Court's valuable time to hear argument, and is content for the motions to be decided on the papers.

Respectfully,

/s/ John G. Day
